One Day Until New Year's Eve

New Year's Eve Ball Tested Before Official Times Square Celebration

*Co-Organizers, and Carnival Corporation President, CEO, and Chief Climate Officer Josh Weinstein
Flip Switch to Illuminate and Raise 11,875-Pound Ball*

RSVP Required. Specific Time Slots Will Be Assigned

In final preparation for New Year's Eve, the iconic Times Square New Year's Eve Ball will be illuminated and sent up the 130-foot pole atop One Times Square on Saturday, December 30th.

Due to the major redevelopment construction at One Times Square, viewing times will be staggered for media, between 10:30 AM ET and 2:00 PM ET. Press must RSVP in advance to receive a specific call time. Check-in will take place outside of One Times Square on 42nd Street and Broadway, on the North side of the street.

Event co-organizers Jeffrey Straus, President of Countdown Entertainment, and Tom Harris, President of the Times Square Alliance, along with Josh Weinstein, President, CEO, and Chief Climate Officer of Carnival Corporation, will flip the giant switch to initiate the spectacular, kaleidoscope lighting effects, illuminated by 32,256 energy efficient LEDs and enhanced by 2,688 crystal triangles.

“Carnival Cruise Lines is thrilled to be back in Times Square to celebrate the new year,” said Weinstein. “This is America’s New Year’s Party, and we’re America’s cruise line – it’s a perfect match for ringing in 2024. Because nobody does fun like Carnival for New Year’s Eve!”

The Ball is capable of displaying a palette of more than 16 million vibrant colors and billions of patterns that creates the spectacular kaleidoscope effect atop One Times Square.

Carnival Cruise Line is the official cruise line sponsor of the Times Square New Year's Eve Celebration.
